ABOUT

Maden July is a London-based artist blending Afrobeat rhythm with contemporary Pop and R&B vocal textures. Drawing creative and cultural influence from across Africa and India, his music balances storytelling with movement-driven energy designed for both listening and live environments.

After more than a decade developing his craft, his artistic direction has evolved toward identity-rooted expression and global connection — merging rhythmic vitality with emotional depth. His work aims to bridge audiences through culture, movement, and shared human experience.

CURRENT RELEASE

TETE — SINGLE (2026)

An upbeat Afrobeat-pop crossover blending smooth R&B vocals with playful Swahili touches — built around rhythm, attraction, and late-night energy designed for radio and dancefloor rotation.
